

April 2024

Worshipful Master Message

Brethren,

For your consideration:

Beginning this month, I would like to have the first Stated Communication of the month be open to all Masons; opening on the appropriate degree relative to the brother on the lowest degree per our custom. Education will be provided.

The second Stated Communication of the month, I would like to reserve for opening on the MM degree for more advanced education and conversation. EAs and FCs are invited to be present on both evenings, but at the second meeting of the month, EAs and FCs are strongly encouraged to practice their proficiency in the library or dining hall while the lodge is open on the MM degree. EAs and FCs are also invited to arrive early to set up the lodge and then to join the MMs for refreshment and fellowship after the closing of the lodge.

If there is a request for discussion regarding this topic the lodge will step up to the MM degree on the night of April 1 for further examination. If there is no discussion requested, the lodge will remain on the degree first opened and we will move forward as proposed.

Fraternally,
Bro. Benjamin Miller
Worshipful Master 2024

Celebrating Easter as Masons

by AASR Dayton | Apr 12, 2020

Nathan H. Pelfrey, 33°

On March 31st, Christians around the world celebrate the resurrection of Christ and the promise of eternal life ever after. It is also a reminder that the last supper was in fact a Passover Seder. It is the combination of these two events that remind us of the bonds between Christianity and Judaism.

If you are a member of a lodge like mine, you have members of multiple faiths in your lodge. At any given time, we have had three holy books on our altar, the Holy Bible, the Torah and the Koran. For me this is a reminder that we as Masons are all traveling a parallel path, that regardless of what our individual beliefs are, we are in search of the same thing, the immortality of the soul and life eternal.

Regardless of your religion, it is my sincere hope and prayer that you and yours will one day travel along the path of revelation as well. It is my hope that as you travel through life, regardless of the religion you may practice, in your heart that you remember that when we “love one another” we are taking that one step closer to the divine and to life eternal and immortal.

Freemasonry is big on symbolism so a quick Easter symbolism review:

- Eggs symbolize new life.
- Easter bunny represents fertility.
- Lamb symbolizes Jesus as it embodies innocence, purity, goodness, and sacrifice.
- Easter Lily represents resurrection of Jesus.

Happy Easter, no matter how you celebrate or spend this day!
