Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren,

The lodge's April 2nd meeting will be a family night event. All Brothers and their families and friends, candidates and prospects are welcome. We have a guest speaker for the night; it should be an enjoyable and interesting meeting.

The month of March was a very busy one. We had our Grand Master's visit with other Monday night Lodges, and everything went as planned.

Brothers Larry Gilleland and Mathew Olson were raised to the Sublime Degree of a Master Mason on March 9th. We plan on their proficiencies before we go dark for the summer recess. We welcomed them as our new Master Masons. They will be a great help for doing degree work for others. We had a new applicant for the degrees of Masonry in our lodge. His name is Jack Butler. This man was first greeted at last year's Buffalo Bill Days. Worshipful Brother Byron, I guess I will always listen to you, and bring along a petition in case we need to sign a new Brother to be.

I need to pay some respect to our newest elected Junior Warden, Steven Walker. Brother Steven you amaze me with your work in doing the 1st. degree obligation as Master of the lodge. You did it as a professional.

As I look upon the landscapes this time of the year I see Mother Nature starting to wake up from her long winters sleep, and know that we soon will look up to blue skies and dry roads again. Need to make sure that our lawn mowers are ready for summer.

Fraternally yours, John O'Brine, Worshipful Master
