Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren: The chill of fall is beginning to usher in the change of seasons. Soon a new officer line will be installed in their stations and places; thus the change in leadership of our lodge.

I wish to thank every brother for the trust that was placed upon me to fulfill the role as the Worshipful Master for 2013.

It has been a good year with 10 EA candidates, 6 FC candidates and 6 MM candidates. Three of these are family; two of whom I have gotten through the proficiency process. We have a steady stream of petitions coming in, setting ourselves up for more degree work next year.

I have experimented with a few things this year, one of these being multiple candidates during the degrees. I used a different approach in the proficiency examination in lodge. This allowed diversity in the degree work with the addition of poems at various places in the work. Thanks to everyone for going along with this. I have gotten very positive feedback. Sometimes you have to be flexible to new ideas. The meeting attendance seems to have improved a bit and I have tried very hard to keep meetings as short as possible for those needing to go to work early the next day.

Fraternally Yours,

Christopher Westerhoff, W.M.
