Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethern:

I would like to begin by saying how honored I am that Worshipful Brother John O'Brine is allowing me to sit in the East during his absence due to his ongoing cancer treatments. We all wish him a speedy return as I know he has wanted this opportunity to serve the lodge as Master for quite a long time.

Brothers Drew Albrecht and James England were declared proficient on their EA degree and were passed to the Degree of Fellow Craft on May 7th, along with Jesse Wallace (a courtesy for Aurora Lodge No. 156). We are expecting more proficiencies before we go dark for the summer.

We have started the process to change our by-laws to reflect our need to raise the dues and the amount it will cost a man to become a Mason. We are eating into our savings at a very fast rate to meet our monthly obligations thus we need a dues increase.

As the days continue to grow longer and warmer, I would like to remind everyone to go out and view, with delight, the power, wisdom and goodness of the Grand Artificer of the Universe. Make some observations of nature and take in all it has to offer.

Note our plan for a special communication on June 18 to bring four men into Masonry, so that they may see The Light.

Fraternally,

Chris Westerhoff, Senior Warden
