Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren: I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for electing me as your Worshipful Master for the ensuing Masonic Year. It is with great pleasure that I take this position and will do my best to make our time together both relevant and educational to the furthering of the craft. It is unfortunate that the timing of my and many of our brothers and their family members early winter illnesses impacted the attendance at our otherwise amazing Widow's Recognition, Memorial Ceremony and Officer Installation event. All that attended were treated to a great evening and an incredible meal put on by the Job's Daughters.

I would like to recognize Worshipful Brother Steven Walker for his service this part year. His time in the east exposed us to many new masonic traditions he learned while participating in Masonry in Scotland. Membership in the lodge continued to grow, substantial temple improvements were supported, an enthusiastic officer line was cultivated and our financial position also improved thanks to his steady leadership.

Also, congratulations to Brothers Tim Johansson, Robert Beer and Nick Westerhoff for their individual efforts that earned them recognition for the lodge's annual awards. It should not be overlooked that Robert and Nick are both very new members to the lodge and young in their masonic careers.

For the Masonic year 6015 Anno Lucis (AL), I have many areas that I want to focus on to improve the foundation of the lodge. From brothers getting to know one another better, to exemplary ritual work to more interaction with our mountain lodge brethren, I am looking forward to a full and fun calendar. And it all begins in January where I hope to see you in lodge.

Fraternally yours, Kevin Alcox, WM
