Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren, it's been a hot summer and we are only half way through. Golden City Lodge is currently dark until September 17, but we have not been idle.

We have been upgrading the Lodge building. We have added drapes and soundproofing to the downstairs fellowship hall. We are also in the process of installing an Audio/Video system in the fellowship hall.

Our members have also been busy. We had over 150 masons from around the state join Golden City in the Buffalo Bill Days Parade. We staffed our booth all 3 days of Buffalo Bill Days and created over 200 child IDs and gave away a sea of blue in Masonic logo balloons.

There was a healthy interest in Masonry from the Grand Lodge web site and from the Buffalo Bill Days event, so we followed up with an Open House at the Lodge a on August 6th. We had 4 new prospects attend who expressed interest in joining our lodge.

We are continuing our Tuesday Night Supper Club at Woody's Pizza and this month we had an additional Mason from California dine with us who may be joining Golden City Lodge.

On September 17th, we resume our lodge meetings. We already have an EA degree scheduled and are working to put together a Table Lodge.

I sincerely appreciate all of the support and participation over the summer. Thank you.

Fraternally, Tom Zumalt, WM (720-318-9228)
