Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren: It is an honor to serve as your Worshipful Master for the next ensuing Masonic Year. A special thanks to all the past masters that have guided and assisted me and to the current members that have taken active roles in this term with me.

As mentioned during the installation, we're starting off in a good but busy year with the putting on of all three degrees. First up will be the initiation of Tim Zumalt, son of our own Senior Warden. Next, brother John Thornton will go up to his 2nd Degree, and finally, I'm expecting brother Canion Puckett will be ready for his 3rd very soon.

This year is a year of anniversaries, particularly the 300th year of the establishment of the Grand Lodge of England and the 100th year of the burial of Buffalo Bill. For the former, I've established a special committee for the purposes of helping with furthering Masonic education. For the later, I'm expecting, that our Grand Lodge of Colorado will tap us to assist in the burial reenactment.

Thank you again for your trust and confidence in electing me as your Worshipful Master.

Fraternally,

Ryan Puckett, 720 218 0770
