Brethren: Thank you for your trust and confidence in electing me as your Worshipful Master for the ensuing Masonic Year. I am greatly humbled and look forward to serving you all and making this year as meaningful to you as I can. I would like to thank Worshipful Brother Chris Westerhoff and recognize him for his hard and excellent work this past year, and also looking forward to his continuing efforts in behalf of Masonry. He will certainly be a hard act to follow. I also extend my thanks to the officers elected and appointed, and to those on our committees, for their dedication to our Craft ensures a fruitful future. For me, my Brothers, our great Fraternity is a child of the enlightenment. As such, I hope to advance our knowledge of Masonry through continuing education, and an appreciation of our Masonic heritage through exemplary ritual work and a commitment to relevancy of our Fraternity in the future. My continuing intent is to make each and every Masonic meeting a unique and special time for you, worthy of your time and talents. The commitment to friendship, morality and brotherly love among us is foremost. There is a task and place for each of us, and I ask for and welcome any and all suggestions any of our Brothers have to enhance our individual and collective Masonic experience and purpose.

“Enlightenment is a man’s emergence from his self-imposed immaturity...Nothing is required for this enlightenment...except freedom; and the freedom in question is the least harmful of all, namely, the freedom to use reason publicly in all matters” – Immanuel Kant

Fraternally yours,
Steven Walker, WM
