Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren:

We have had a busy year so far with ten Stated Communications, three Emergent Communications, initiation of three Entered Apprentices, passing of a Fellow Craft, and raising of four Master Masons! Congratulations Brother Paul Stoltman on your passing to Fellow Craft, and welcome Brothers Ted Beer and Jeffrey Russell, our new Entered Apprentices.

Now it is about time to set our working tools aside, with regard to tyled work, for the summer. Do not put them away, though, as there are a lot of activities going on during our period of recess (see the schedule) and my prayer is that they are always in use with our relations with all mankind, all the time. Note the Hawaiian shirt night theme for our 2 June meeting. Please call Brother John Bartos with the times you can help with our Buffalo Bill Days booth (child ID service). We are to exemplify the Masonic Burial Service in a Buffalo Bill re-enactment. Lets support the student we sponsored to the Masonic Band Camp. Strengthen our fellowship at the pancake breakfasts, Nevada breakfast and the Central pig roast. The Grand Lodge Budget meeting is an important one.

Fraternally yours, Steven Walker, WM
