Message of the Worshipful Master

Brethren:

Brethren, my prayer is that you and yours had a great summer. Some of our Brethren kept their working tools close at hand, attending the Nevada 4 Breakfast, working the Buffalo Bill Days, Jeffco Safety Days and Innovation Faire Child ID Booths, participating in the re-enactment of Buffalo Bill's Masonic funeral, attending the Grand Lodge Budget Session, making the trip up to the Lodge over Simkin's Store, fellowship with our Brethren of Central 6 at their pig roast, electrical work in the temple, pouring the northeast steps at the temple, pouring the overlay on the front steps, the cornerstone ceremony at the Masonic Eastern Star Home, Craig's waxing the Temple floors, working with our youth groups (who did not go dark, by the way), getting our computer/rear-view projector capability, the Temple board keeping at it, and others whom I have certainly, but wish I had not, overlooked herewith.

Upcoming masonic education includes introductions to our appendant and concordant bodies, the first being by Brother Rocco Eastridge on the York Rite Bodies. We have a virtual log-jam of degree work upstream, and when it breaks (when they get their proficiencies) we will be doing a lot of degree work. I know this upcoming fall will be busy, but I am looking forward coming together again and in achieving great things through our fellowship.

Advance notice: 2015 per capita was set at $50 at the budget session. 2015 dues notices will go out near the end of October.

Fraternally yours, Steven Walker, WM
